

We want to hear from you...

The book, “30 Reasons NOT to Marry Before 30” is a work in progress by Felena Hanson and Chris Williams. This site was developed not only to collect your relationship stories but also to serve as a place where you can receive valuable information on marriage and relationships.

Our goal is to shift the societal paradigm. Times have changed! Although we're living in the 21st century we are still governed by norms from 50 years ago. People are maturing later, living longer, and engaging in deeper levels of self-exploration throughout their lives.

By combining your stories with our significant research efforts, we hope to give the 20 to 30 year olds reasons to consider delaying marriage and the unmarried 30 and above age group validation for waiting.

We are looking for champions to help us push this book forward. If you know any published relationship experts that might be interested in exploring this project with us, we appreciate the referral. Drop us a line at felena\(at\)30reasons.com30reasons.com)
